OLD-FASHIONED CARNIVAL SUPPORTS HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

MISSOULA --

The University of Montana chapter of Habitat for Humanity will hold an old-fashioned carnival -- the "Griz House Party" -- from 5 to 7 p.m. Friday, Sept. 20, at the Mansfield Mall in front of the Maureen and Mike Mansfield Library.

The carnival is a fund-raiser for construction of the chapter's Griz Built house, which will begin spring 2003.

A kissing booth, dunking booth, cake walk, coin toss and various games of skill will be among the fun events offered at the carnival, which will be held during 2002 Homecoming at UM.

The University's chapter of Habitat for Humanity was organized in 2001. Chapter members and other UM students, staff and faculty, as well as Griz supporters will volunteer to build the Griz Built house.

For more information about the carnival, call Bev Llewellyn at 243-4427. Griz supporters interested helping build the Griz Built house may call Madeline Mussman at UM's Office for Civic Engagement, 243-4442.
